

ACCOMPANYING A LOVED ONE THROUGH RECOVERY

Addiction Treatment and Recovery is an opportunity for the whole family to reimagine and reinvent the family unit, while their loved one receives treatment for their addiction. Rather than viewing treatment as a solution to the cure of their loved one, families should view recovery as a space to also heal themselves and to learn new skills that serve the whole family.

Last updated on February 03, 2021.

Addiction Support

Links

ACCOMPANYING A LOVED ONE THROUGH RECOVERY

Print

Table of Contents