

New U.S. Taxpayers

The part of the United States government that deals with taxes is called the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). You report your tax to the IRS along with an IRS form. Doing this is called “filing a tax return.” Are you or your spouse working and receiving a paycheck? Did your employer withhold income taxes from your paycheck? You may get a tax refund.

Informational brochure for New U.S. Taxpayers.

Last updated on June 29, 2012.

Taxation

Files

New U.S. Taxpayers.pdf

Print

Table of Contents

From the Twitter feed

Follow Us

RT @BCBSRI: We're excited to announce that @rilegalservices is part of the BACHG class of 2020! They will continue to represent tenants who...

rilegalservices

Jun 12, 20

RT @LegalAidWM: Who can get paid leave because of #COVID19? This sheet explains the main points to know from the The Families First Coronav...

rilegalservices

Jun 5, 20

RT @homesRI_: Thanks @ThePublicsRadio for shedding light on stories like those of Brandon and his landlord. They are the reason Homes RI is...

rilegalservices

Jun 1, 20

RT @ThePublicsRadio: When RI's District Court put eviction hearings on hold in March, complaints of landlords illegally forcing tenants out...

rilegalservices

May 29, 20

